Acts 10:34. 37-43

Peter and his companions have become witnesses to the Lord's resurrection.

1 Corinthians 5:6-8

Christ's resurrection has the power to transform our lives.

St. John 20:1-9

At the empty tomb the disciples finally begin to understand Jesus and his mission.

“John who had reached the tomb first also went in:
 he saw and he believed.”

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark...’ So begins today’s Gospel reading, the Gospel we listen to every Easter Sunday. This opening line sets the scene for the events of that first Easter, when first Mary of Magdala, and then Simon Peter and the other disciple, discover the empty tomb and come to the realisation that Jesus has risen from the dead. It is only at this moment that they understand what Jesus had been trying to teach them. Their eyes are opened. They see and they believe.

And what about us, this Easter? What do we believe? Easter is about more than simply recalling or commemorating the resurrection of Jesus. By raising Jesus from the dead, God also opened up for us the way to eternal life. This feast is the reason for our faith and the reason for our hope. Our celebration today raises us up and renews us in faith, hope and love.

Let us love one another and pray,
 Let us love one another and be faithful,
 Let us love one another and be humble,
 Let us love one another and be filled with the charity of God.

Let us love one another with God, in God, and for God,
 And we shall thus be one with God for all eternity.

Today’s Psalm
Psalm 117

This was the last of the Hallel psalms which Jesus would have sung with the disciples at the end of the Passover meal. In the light of the resurrection it acquires a wonderful fulfilment. His right hand has raised me up. The resurrection completes the passing of Jesus from this world to the Father.

This day was made by the Lord, we rejoice and are glad.

With the psalmist we rejoice and gives thanks for his goodness which has overcome sin, and for his love which has no end. I shall live and recount his deeds. We are called to be witnesses to the resurrection, rising above darkness and sin. The most authentic witness is the testimony of charity in thought, attitude and action. God’s love comes to perfection only when we love one another. That is how his love has no end.

May the stones of hard hearts be rolled away by the angels of God’s grace. May the Church in its holiness be a marvel in our eyes.

Urbi et Orbi (BBC 1 Easter Sunday) Pope Francis' Easter Sunday Message and Blessing - Urbi et Orbi -

The Easter Season isn't just Easter Sunday. It's fifty days long, and the last of those days is Pentecost (Greek for 'fiftieth') marking the birth of the Church and the coming of the Holy Spirit. In older traditions, it's called 'Whitsunday' because the traditional colour for church clothing and decor on Pentecost is white. On that day the Holy Spirit arrives to be with us, and that Spirit sends a fresh wave of joy. During these fifty days of Easter, while we are singing alleluia to our risen Saviour, we are also listening to the stories of the struggles and hardships of the early followers of Jesus.

It was with horror that I read the news of our government's plans to send those who cross the channel seeking refuge and asylum to Rwanda for 'processing'.

As the 5th richest economy in the world, I feel that this 'solution' as they put it, is an abhorrent dereliction of our duty as human beings, and of our legal obligations as a signatory of the UN convention. Sign the Petition for our M.P.

People seeking asylum need to be treated with compassion and dignity.
